Positioning Statement

Look younger, and stay that way longer with the patented, award-winning science of Collagen/HA Matrix® Technology plus ceramides and 17 phytonutrient-rich foods including pomegranate, bamboo, and green tea, all in a unique, fast-acting liquid delivery system. Liquid BioCell® Skin delivers clinically studied, effective ingredients and results. Visible signs of aging can be a result of natural wear and tear of connective tissue, where both collagen and hyaluronic acid (HA) are essential. Liquid BioCell replenishes these important substances and is clinically shown to work. Liquid BioCell is so remarkable that it has been awarded 7 U.S. and international patents and multiple industry awards. It has been featured on NBC, Good Morning America and Fox News.*
